Why Was Gen. Breckinridge Relieved Command?—Printed O der Honora-bly Discharging the General.

New you shall be a provided from the wolman of man of man of man of man of May Gen. John C. Breekinridge. * The announcement caused great surprise among the friends of the general and one and all are unable to account for it. The "original order" made public on last Friday contained the names of May Gens. Coppinger, Hawkins and Kent, but not that of Gen.
Breekinridge. Gen. Breekinridge was only a short time ago assigned to the command of the troops in the Kentucky camps, and not even the rumor of his being relieved has been heard at the war department. Why he is relieved is a mystery.
